

Arrhythmias: New Advances; Emerging Treatments

Delivering Improved Care for Your Arrhythmia Patients

20 May 2010
Optic Technium, St Asaph Business Park, St Asaph

PROGRAMME

09.30 - 09.50 Coffee and Registration

- 09.50 - 10.00 Introductions
Dr Richard Cowell, Network Lead Cardiologist
- 10.00 - 10.30 Evolving Interventional Therapies for AF
Dr Dhiraj Gupta, Consultant Cardiologist, Liverpool Heart and Chest Hospital
- 10.30 - 10.50 Patient Experience
Mr Neil Bradshaw

10.50 - 11.20 Break

- 11.20 - 11.50 Evolving Medical Therapies for AF
Dr Khalid Khan, Consultant Cardiologist, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board (East)
- 11.50 - 12.20 Improving Primary Care Based Service for People with Arrhythmias
Dr Graham Thomas, Network Lead GP
- 12.20 - 12.45 Discussion of morning presentations and summary
Dr Richard Cowell, Network Lead Cardiologist

12.45 - 13.30 Lunch

- 13.30 - 14.00 Cardiogenetics and Sudden Cardiac Death Syndrome
Dr Emma McCann, Consultant Clinical Geneticist, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board (Central)
- 14.00 - 14.30 Developing a Pathway for the Management of Patients and Families with Potential Inherited Cardiac Conditions within a DGH.
Erica Longster, Arrhythmia Nurse Specialist, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board (East)
- 14.30 - 15.10 Arrhythmias and Device Therapy in Adult Congenital Heart Disease
Dr Raj Thaman, Consultant Cardiologist, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board (East)

15.10 - 15.30 Break

- 15.30 - 15.50 NICE on Syncope
Dr Martin Duerden, Assistant Medical Director Primary Care Conwy and Denbighshire, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board
- 15.50 - 16.10 ECG Training in Primary and Secondary Care (Quiz)
Dr Muezz Uddin, Cardiology SpR, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board (Central)
- 16.10 - 16.15 Close
Dr Richard Cowell, Network Lead Cardiologist